

TABLE TALK for the Week of August 28-Sept 1.

Here are some of the activities going on this week both in class and throughout the school that you could discuss at the dinner table, in the car, or anytime with your child. As always, please contact me with any questions/issues.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Thank you to those parents who attended the Curriculum Night, I sincerely hope your questions/concerns were answered. This is week 2 of the School Scholastic Book Fair, students will have opportunities to purchase books this week. Also, the students came home with order forms for dress code shirts. There are new purple & red shirts and the shirts from year are available to order as well. These shirts are only available through pre-order. They are dress code approved so students can wear them to school any day of the week. Orders with money are due by Friday September 1st!!!!

I will ensure your child takes home their planner this week. Please read/review the SUSD & SIS guidelines & sign page 22. Lastly, our US Map/State test(s) is this week, I hope your child has been studying!! There is no school on Mon, Sept 4th due to the Labor Day holiday & on Tues, Sept 5th Class will have a substitute teacher.

Below are the upcoming academic objectives & events for the week:

Math- Rounding decimals to the thousandths. Writing decimals in expanded form.

ELA- Analyze & explain how different plot elements work together. Determine explicitly stated themes. Demonstrate a strong command of conjunctions, prepositions, & interjections.

Social Studies- Identifying states in a region & on the U.S. Map. Students should be studying their states at home & our test is on Aug 29th & retest is Sept 1st.
